BISHOP GALLOWAY'S BRILLIANT ADDRESS

The Corner-Stone of the New Cabell Street Church Laid. Mass Meeting in Interest of Education-Delegates to Conference.

(Special from a Staff Correspondent.) DANVILLE, VA., November 10 .- More business was transacted on the third day of the one hundred and twenty-third session of the Virginia Methodist Con ference than on any previous day, al though there was a goodly supply of speech-making.

Bishop Granbery made his first appear on the floor of the Conference. He has been in the city since the opening leave his room. He made a feeling talk when introduced to the Conference. To the surprise of some the proposition to divide the Conference territory into two conferences was practically shelved so far as this body is at present con-cerned. It came in the shape of a mild memorial to the General Conference of-fered by Rev. Joseph H. Amiss, asking permission of the General Conference to divide at some indefinite time within the next four years.

subject, it will be when the Committee on Memorials reports on Mr. Amiss's paper, if it ever does.

The Bishop's Address.

The feature of the day was Bishop Galloway's address to the class of four young preachers who were admitted into the full conference connection. It was an able, eloquent and very earnest address, beautifully set off with flashes of pure wit and splendid good humor. The election of delegates to the General Conference caused considerable subdued excitement. It required three ballots to fill the laymen's list, and the voting on them was not completed until the night session.

At the annual reunion and banquet of Randelph-Macon alumn, held at 10.50 ck, the principal speeches were made by Bishop Galloway and Rev. Dr. John Hammond. The reunion was largely at-

The Proceedings.

The third day's work of the one hundred and twenty-third session of the annual conference of Virginia, M. E. Church, South, opened at 9 o'clock, with devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Dr. W. E. Judkins, of Norfolk.

Two bishops sat on the platform at the opening, Bishop Grauberry, who has been here since opening day, but too unwell to attend the sessions of the body made his first appearance, During the day he frequently presided when business would call Bishop Galloway to the committee rooms, When Bishop Granberry was introduced he briefly addressed the conference, making pleasant reference to a former conference held in this city seer which he presided.

Dr. J. Figart, book editor; Dr. J. D. Hammond, general secretary of the Board of Missions, and Dr. James Atkins, relitor of the Sunday school literature, were introduced to the conference. All addressed the body briefly.

Question of Division.

Question of Division.

Question of Division.

Rev. J. H. Amiss brought the question of a division of the conference before the body for just a minute. He sent up a paper memorializing the general conference to divide the conference. The paper does not indicate the lines to be observed in the division. It simply asks the general conference to permit the Virginia conference to cut its territory in twain sometime within the nost four years, the lines to be hereafter arranged. The paper was not read but was referred to the committee on memorials to general conference without discussion. The probability is that the committee will report favorably and the paper and conference will adopt the same without discussion, thus transferring to the floors of the general conference wast at one time promised to be a lively discussion. There may be a considerable taste of it when the memorial committee's report somes up.

CANVASS OF CITY FOR RELIEF FUND

Mr. John P. Branch Sends $100 From Danville, and Leigh Street Church Asks to Unite-Dr. Mitchell Speaks-People Stirred.

Stirred to the heart by the awful suferings of their kinsmen across the seas, the Jews of Richmond last night sub cribed nearly $1,000 to a relief fund to be raised through all the world, planned a thorough canvass of the city for furth er contributions, and took steps that will result in a memorial calling upon the United States government to exert its great influence in preventing for all time to come a recurrence of the Russian atrocities that have shocked the civilized nations of the earth.

Prompt and generous aid in response to the pittful cry for help thus has come from the stricken people was the keynote of the speeches made and the appeal went clearly home. Those present gave freely, and the meeting ended with the tucit agreement that each man and woman there should do his part in arousing the community at large to a realization of the condition of the helpless victims of the unbridled passions of a nation just casting off the shackles of despotism. The Jews themselves were represented by some of the best known of their race in the city, and the audience included besides several of other faiths, but of like sympathies upon this matter. The movement at its start was of Richmond, irrespective of Professor S. C. Mitchell, of Richcreed. Professor S. C. Mitchell, of Richmond College, was one of the speakers, and the Rev. M. Ashby Jones, D. D., writing for himself and the congregation of the Leigh Street Baptist Church, claimed the right of uniting in the work of succor. From Danville, where he is attending the session of the Methodist Conference, Mr. John P. Branch, president of the Merchants' Bank, telegraphed asking the privilege of contributing $100 to the cause.

The meeting was held in the school com of the Beth Ahabah Temple and was called to order about 8:45 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. E. N. Callsch, rabbi of the congretation. The room was well filled with people, men and women. The call for the assemblage was made CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Cleveland, O., says: Mayor Tom Johnson, alarmed at the official report that there have been eighty-six suicides in Cleveland in the last nine months, has taken steps to check the epidemic of self-destruction.

He has appointed a commission whose duty it will be to attempt to dissuade would-be suicides from taking their own lives. The commission is made up of Director of Charities Cooley, W. A. Greelund, a member of the charity hureau, and State-Senator-Elect F. C. Howe.

Every man or woman in Cleveland who is contemplating suicide is invited to write a letter to the anti-suicide commission and tell their troubles. The members of the commission will then make an effort to remove the trouble. For people despondent from non-employment the commission endeavors to obtain employment, while the needs and wants of others seeking aid are looked after.

All three men are experienced in such work and their labors so far have proved satisfactory.

Frauds and Charges of Flagrant Debauchery of the New York Returns Are Increasing.

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, November 10.-Ten indictments for violations of the election law, and two for assaults committed as the polls at the election last Tuesday, It was said might that Attorney General Mayer and instituted a search ing investigation of the alleged election frauds which would be continued und the Legislature meets.

The Attorney-General and Mr. Morgan to-night examined a number of witnesses in conection with the frauds and also conforred with Henry E. Yonge, special counsel for Mr. Hearst and discussed plans to prosecute persons against whom charges may be brought.

After District Leaders.

The situation to-day was described by Villiam R. Hearst as follows:

"The Law Committee has discovered some very amazing things, and the deeper we go into this thing, the uglies it looks. We have evidence against twelve district leaders, and I am confident that we shall send two or three of them to prison. I am just as much in-terested in the criminal prosecution of this case I am in the recount. In this case it makes no difference whether I am elected or not in comparison with the greater duty of sending criminals to jail.

Colossal Repeating.

Here Mr. Hearst said that many letters had been received by his managers, pur-porting to show that men from Connecticut, Massachusetts and New Jersey had come to New York on election day, and, after voting fifteen or more time and, after voting fifteen or more times for the Tammanv ticket, for which they received a five dollar note each time, returned to their homes.

President Voornis, of the board of elections, to-day said the talk about missing ballot boxes was foolish. The board, he said, knew how many boxes it gave out and as far as he knew all that should have come back have been received. He declared that the story about ballot boxes being found in the river is all false to-day that Tammany district captains have secured evidence showing frauds committed by Hearst's supporters on election day. Several leaders said that organization will likewise bring he lessening of the Hearst vote, dny to bet $10,000 against $0,000 that Hearst will be seated as the next mayor of New York.

Two ballot boxes were found to-day in a barber shon at 156 Third Avenue, one of them full of half solled and torn ballots, and the other centry. This barber shon was the polling place of the first election district of the eighteen assembly district, which is the district of which Charles F. Murphy, head of Tammany Hall, is the leader. Hearst watchers found the two boxes.
